Day 01 – Sunday, 23rd April

09h00 – Departure to Viseu

In Center of Portugal, surrounded by mountains and rivers Vouga and Dão, stands the city of Viseu, birthplace of Vasco Fernandes, and milestone of sacred art and religious architecture, as evidenced by the numerous churches that adorn the historical center.

Dão Wine Region

20.000 hectares of vineyards protected by the Mountains of Caramulo, Buçaco and Estrela. A long history of excellence wines since 1908

Guided visit to Viseu

Lunch @ Mesa de Lemos

In perfect harmony with its natural surroundings, abundant grape vines, and the relaxing countryside of the Dão region, the Mesa de Lemos restaurant at the Quinta de Lemos, opened in May of 2014, offers its guests a cuisine cooked using products from the region, creatively prepared using modern cooking techniques, in a space that is of the highest quality, sophisticated, modern, and welcoming.

Departure to Santar

Santar is a wonderful aristocratic village situated 25 minutes away from Viseu at the heart of Dão Wine Demarcated Region.

The project of Santar Garden Village values the uniqueness of Santar village, unveiling its many secrets, its views, its charms. It has reinforced the identity of the landscape and it is a way of visiting the village and its history through the gardens.

Fernando Caruncho was the landscape architect who has awoken the sleeping nature of these places, fulfilling the goal of the house Casa dos Condes de Santar e Magalhães: making Santar irresistible and fostering the social, cultural and economic development of the region.

Wine tasting

Check in @ Pousada de Viseu

Diner @ Muralha da Sé

Housed in a beautiful granite building at the heart of the historical centre of Viseu facing the imposing 12th century Cathedral, restaurant Muralha da Sé is a delightful place, where you can taste the most delicious regional gastronomic specialities. The wine selection is exquisite and very diversified.

Day 02 – Monday, 24th April

Visit Caminhos Cruzados Winery

uinta da Teixuga, a vinyward with 30 hectares, located in Vilar Seco Viseu, in the heart of the Dão Region. This geographical location, is ideal for the slow development and growth of the grapes created by the thermal gap producing aromatic and good acidity wines. In the vineyards of Teixuga, that average an age of 50 years, there are examples of the best variety of the Dão Region such as Touriga Nacional, Tinta Roriz, Jaen, Alfrocheiro, Malvasia-Fina, Encruzado and Bical.

This is a new modern and bold winery opened in 2017, with capacity to produce 400 000 litres of wine

Giving a new, fresh and young look of modernity and development to the Dão Region, the project “Caminhos Cruzados” became known as “The New Dão”.

Lunch @ Caminhos Cruzados

Small walk by Dão Cycling path

The Dão Eco-Path is 47,5 km long, connecting the municipalities of Viseu, Tondela and Santa Comba Dão. This fantastic eco-path used to be the former railway line of Dão region. It is certainly one of the most beautiful eco-paths in the country!

Dinner DeRaiz

Good regional cuisine for those looking for food that was served at home by mother or grandmother.

Cook with passion nearby Viseu.

Day 03 – Tuesday, 25th April

Visit and lunch @ Julia Kemper Wines

Julia Kemper Wines, a Portuguese wine brand of excellence!

Julia Kemper Wines differs from the other Portuguese wine brands. Her main goal is to produce top Portuguese wines, using biodynamic and organic techniques, which implies extensive knowledge, constant work and learning.

It implies, above all, dedication and an enormous passion.

This passion has been in Melo Family for more than 400 years and its values have passed from generation to generation. This results in the production of a high quality organic and vegan wine brand.
